

Child Well-Being Network: Family Engagement Workgroup Meeting Notes Wednesday, March 16, 2016

- John Concklin and JoKeitha Seabrook presented on United Way of Greenville's integrated service model. United Way of Greenville was able to get several community partners to work together to offer an array of financial literacy and assistance services to the community. By incentivizing the use of multiple services by an individual, they are able to help that individual become more self-sufficient. Discussion of integrated service models will continue in future meetings as we discussed how the model could be duplicated across the Upstate.
- Cody Edgar and Rachel Cantrell, with Engenius, presented on how organizations can increase the effectiveness of their websites. Click here to review their presentation.
- Is your organization in need of a new website? Engenius is now taking applications for their 2016 Nonprofit Website Grant. Check out this press release for additional information.
