A woman with dark skin, wearing a white hairnet and a blue button-down shirt, is looking down at several large white plastic jugs. The jugs have yellow labels and are arranged in rows. The background is a blurred industrial or laboratory setting with white equipment. On the left side of the image, there is a graphic overlay consisting of a group of grey human silhouettes of various sizes. Overlaid on these silhouettes is the text "People" in a red, cursive script font, and "FIRST" in a bold, black, sans-serif font below it.
