

Registered Behavior Technician® (RBT®)

Job Description: Under the supervision of a Board Certified Behavior Analyst® (BCBA®), this professional provides Applied Behavior Analysis (ABA) services to individuals with autism or other developmental disabilities, focusing primarily on acquiring skills and reducing unhealthy behaviors.

NOTE: Must be at least 18 years old to work in this profession.

Average Salary (South Carolina): $34,664

Average Salary (National): $37,355

Educational/Experiential/Training Requirements

1. High School Diploma (or equivalent)
2. Pass criminal background check
3. Completion of 40-hour training that meets requirements set forth by the Behavior Analyst Certification Board (BACB)
4. Completion of RBT Initial Competency Assessment, Behavior Analyst Certification Board (BACB)

Licensure/Certification Requirement(s)

- National certification (Registered Behavior Technician® (RBT®)), Behavior Analyst Certification Board (BACB)

Continuing Education Renewal Requirement(s)

1. Must undergo ongoing supervision from a qualified RBT® Supervisor and/or RBT® Requirements Coordinator
2. Must adhere to the RBT® Ethics Code (2.0) and Self-Reporting Requirements
3. Must renew certification via RBT® Renewal Competency Assessment every year

